

SafePath Earns Award for Service to Children

We are pleased to announce that the Georgia Association of Homes & Services for Children has selected SafePath Children's Advocacy Center as its 2010 Outstanding Agency recipient. The award honors an agency that has demonstrated outstanding service to children, and was presented at the Georgia Conference on Children and Families Celebration Luncheon on November 17, 2010.

